Birthdays and Tea

At the end of February we celebrated those members whose birthdays are in February; Dan Jansen, Angela Lynch, Pauline Shervill, and Donna Williams: and those members whose birthdays are in June; Teresa Gouett and Barb Jones.

Tea

Thank you to Brenda Cooper, Barb Jones and Jackie Taylor for getting the cake and draw prizes and setting up for the tea and collecting the money. Thanks also to Mary McHoull for her help in the serving and to all who helped with the clean up. Following the tea and cake, President Paul McHoull presented the three prizes for the winners of the draw.

Draw

Winners of the 3 draws were: Mary McHoull, Derek Shervill and Flora Morrison. Prizes were presented by President Paul McHoull.

Finally

Donald Trump goes on a fact-finding visit to Israel. While he is on a tour of Jerusalem he suffers a heart attack and dies. The undertaker tells the American diplomats accompanying him, 'You can have him shipped home for $50,000, or you can bury him here, in the Holy Land, for just $100.'

The American diplomats go into a corner and discuss for a few minutes. They come back to the undertaker and tell him they want Donald shipped home

The undertaker is puzzled and asks, 'Why would you spend $50,000 to ship him home, when it would be wonderful to be buried here and you would spend only $100?'

The diplomats replied, 'Long ago a man died here, was buried here, and three days later he rose from the dead. We just can't take the risk.'

There has been a fire at a clock factory in St. Catharines. Unfortunately some of the fire fighters were exposed to second hand smoke.

Two strings walk into a bar. The first tries to order something. "I don't serve strings in this bar," the bartender says roughly and throws him out.

The second ruffs himself up, ties his ends together, walks in, and orders. "Hey, didn't you hear what I told your buddy?" the bartender says.

"Yeah," the string says.

"Aren't you a string?" the bartender says.

"I'm a frayed knot," the string replies.
