Pairs League

The Pairs League has begun the second series for this season. The pairs in this series are Carol and Doug Williams, Mary and Paul McHoull, Joan and David Klooz, Carol and Paul Rondeau, Heather and Ray Pettit, and Diane Harry and Sandi Johnston.

Birthdays

At the end of January we celebrated those members whose birthdays are in January; Gill Collinson, Brenda Cooper, Lynne Gourlay, David Klooz, Berkeley Lambert, Ray Pettit and Paul Roger and Ellen Williams: and those members whose birthdays are in May; Diane Harry, Rory MacCon, Heather Quick, Wes Turner, Elly Warren and Mary Watson.

Tea

Thank you to Heather Pettit for getting the cake and draw prizes and to Joan Klooz for helping with setting up for the tea and collecting the money. Thanks also to Ray Pettit for serving the cake and to Ray Pettit, Sandi Johnston, and David Klooz who helped with the clean up. Thank you to Paul McHoull who did the draw.

Finally

I read a lengthy article on Japanese Sword Fighters. It'd too long to tell in full, but I can Samurais it for you.

What did the grape say when it got stepped on? Nothing - but it let out a little whine.

A small boy swallowed some coins and was taken to a hospital. When his grandmother telephoned to ask how he was a nurse said 'No change yet'.

Two hats were hanging on a hat rack in the hallway. One hat says to the other, 'You stay here, I'll go on a head.'

When the cannibal showed up late to the luncheon, they gave him the cold shoulder.

Two atoms are walking down the street and they run into each other.

One says to the other, "Are you all right?"

"No, I lost an electron."

"Are you sure?"

"Yeah, I'm positive."
